

Want to learn the latest skills in story-telling... for free?

Each year, JesmondLocal takes on 15 journalism students who learn 'on the job' in Jesmond.

Now we're inviting a dozen volunteers from the Jesmond Community to do the same at three evening bootcamps – with mentoring from a team of experts and practising journalists, including the Media Trust, Newcastle University and JesmondLocal.

Would you like to join the team? Tell us a little bit about yourself by emailing or visit the JesmondLocal website.
